

“Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.”

– Nelson Mandela

By now, I am sure many of you will have witnessed and felt deeply saddened by the death of George Floyd on 25th May 2020.

What happened to George Floyd highlights the ongoing racism and inequality encountered by people of colour every day in America, in our country and throughout the world.

Whilst on Earth, Jesus gave us a new commandment:

‘Love one another as I have loved you’ John 13:34

When we think about what happened to George Floyd, it is impossible for us, as followers of Jesus, to remain silent.

Put quite simply, Black Lives Matter and when we witness anything that contradicts Jesus’ teaching, we must join together in solidarity as a whole community to educate our children.

We want to spend this week and every day educating ourselves and our children about equality. We hope you join us in our mission.

Black Lives Matter in our School!

Please look out for resources we will be posting on our website that you can use with your children to explain what is happening around them.

There will be a particular focus on:

- Equality, diversity and racism
- History makers
- Black excellence

I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character.

~ Martin Luther King
