Ezra read from the Law of God so that the people understood what was read.

NEHEMIAH 8:8

You are holding something divine in your hands:
a book that is like fire! A book through which God speaks.

Pope Francis, preface to the Youcat Bible of the Catholic Church

‘Scripture is at the centre of everything the Church does. The Word of God shapes our prayer and worship. The Bible shows us how to understand the world, how we are called to live and relate to each other.’

This year has been designated as 'The God Who Speaks - The Year of the Word'.

There will also be a specific focus on St. Matthew's Gospel.

The Official Launch

The official launch of The God Who Speaks – The Year of the Word is on 30th September with Cardinal Nichols video in the National Gallery on the feast of St. Jerome.

The ‘year’ will officially start on Sunday 1st December 2019, the first Sunday of Advent, the beginning of the Church's Liturgical Year.

OFFICIAL PRAYER FOR THE YEAR

Living God,
you walk alongside us and speak to us throughout the Scriptures.

Your Son, Jesus Christ, listens to our hopes and fears and shows us how to live for one another.

Send us the Holy Spirit to open our hearts and minds so that we may be your witnesses throughout the world.

AMEN

V. Your word is our path and your truth is our light.
R. This day and every day.

The aim of The God Who Speaks - The Year of the Word is:

‘Celebrating, Living and Sharing
God’s Word.’

Celebrating

Living

Sharing

During this very special year we will have the opportunity to celebrate, live and share in the joy of scripture, and in particular the good news of Matthew's gospel.

Fun Bible Facts

Over 100 million copies of the Bible are sold each year!

The word 'bible' is from the Greek ta biblia, which means 'the scrolls' or 'the books'. The word is derived from the ancient city of Byblos, which was the official supplier of paper products to the ancient world.

The full Bible has been translated into 532 languages.

It has been partially translated into 2,883 languages.

The Bible was written by people from many different occupations.

Parts of the Bible were written by kings. Half of the Psalms, a good chunk of Proverbs, and Ecclesiastes were written by royalty.

But other parts of the Bible are written by farmers, fishermen, a tentmaker, homeless prophets, a doctor, a professional scribe, musicians, pastors and many more besides!

The Bible is split into two 'sections':

- The Old Testament
- The New Testament

There are 46 books in the Old Testament...

The Old Testament

... and 27 books in the New Testament.

INTRODUCTION TO THE NEW TESTAMENT

... and here they are!

Making a total of how many books altogether in the Bible?

73!

The shortest verse in the Bible is John 11:35, which states, 'Jesus wept.'

The shortest book of the Bible is 3 John.

You can read this book in about one minute!

The book right before it, 2
John, is the second-shortest book of the Bible.

The longest word in the Bible is ‘Mahershalalhashbaz’

(Isaiah 8:3)

The Bible is about 611,000 words long!

When translating the Bible from its original languages to English, translators tend to use more words to get across the original author's point.

And who wrote all of those words?!

The Bible was written in three languages!

Those languages are Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek.

Most of our Old Testament was written in Hebrew, which was the language the original readers spoke. A few bits of the Old Testament were written Aramaic (looking at you, Ezra and Daniel).

The New Testament was written in Greek, the commonly-spoken language of the time.

The Bible was written by more than 40 traditional authors!

The books of the Bible are traditionally attributed to heroes of the Jewish and Christian faiths. Moses is given credit for the first five books of the Bible, most of the prophets are given credit for the books named after them... and there are a few 'unknowns'!

Moses wrote about 20% of the Bible in terms of word count.

Paul wrote the most individual documents.

Ezra, Luke and Jeremiah make up the rest of the top 5 in the number of words written.

Moses
125,139 words

Ezra
43,618 words

Luke
37,932 words

Jeremiah
35,306 words

Paul
32,408 words

There are at least 185 songs in the Bible!

About 150 of these are in the book of Psalms. (we say ‘about’ because there’s some debate as to whether a few of the separate Psalms were originally meant to be sung as one.) But throughout both the Old and New Testaments, people will sing songs about God or the events around them.

And 185 is a bare minimum!

The Bible was written on three continents!

Most was written in what is modern-day Israel (Asia). But some passages of Jeremiah were written in Egypt (Africa) and several New Testament epistles were written from cities in Europe.

There are 21 dreams recorded in the Bible!

And most of them are had by two different men named Joseph!

Why St. Jerome?

Patron of archaeologists,
Biblical scholars, librarians,
students and translators

Of all the things that made Jerome famous, nothing was so legendary as his translation of the Bible; he spent his entire life translating the scriptures from Hebrew and Old Latin.

The Life of St. Jerome

Matthew the Gospel Writer

The Year of the Word will focus on the Gospel of Matthew which will start to be read at the beginning of Advent on 1st December 2019.

Matthew the Gospel Writer

Little is known about St. Matthew, except that he was the son of Alpheus, and he was likely born in Galilee. He worked as a tax collector, which was a hated profession during the time of Christ.

JOURNEY WITH MATTHEW

PILGRIM PRAYER FOR THE YEAR

Pilgrim God, you walk alongside us and speak to us throughout the Scriptures:
in the message of the prophets, the songs of David and the vision of Paul.

Your Son, Jesus Christ, listens to our hopes and fears and shows us how to live:
in our love of neighbour, our desire for justice, and in our dying and rising each day.

Send us the Holy Spirit to open our hearts and minds so that we may be your witnesses throughout the world:
in our protection of the vulnerable, our words and actions and in our communion with the earth.

AMEN

V. Your word is our path and your truth is our light.
